Walk to Make Alzheimer's a Memory Happens April 18 in Franklin, TN

All of us at Rita's Care at Home have a special place in our hearts for the Alzheimer's Tennessee nonprofit group. Last year our Community Relations Director, Jason Shrum, entered his dog Stevie in the Alzheimer's Middle Tennessee Pet Mascot Contest. Stevie won the contest! We also sponsored a team for the 2025 Alzheimer's Walk and we were one of the top 10 teams.

This year's Alzheimer's Walk will be held on Saturday, April 18 at 8:30 a.m. at the Park at Harlinsdale Farm, 239 Franklin Road in Franklin, Tennessee. Rita's Care at Home will be well represented at the walk – Jason will be the emcee!

There are several ways you can participate. You can organize a team, join a team, volunteer to help with the walk, or simply donate to a great cause. Learn more about the walk at www.alztennessee.org/franklinwalk.

Meet Pet Mascots Stevie and Bonnie

Stevie is the “daughter” of Rita’s Care at Home’s Community Relations Director Jason Shrum. She is also the 2026 Pet Mascot for Alzheimer’s Tennessee.

Bonnie is a miniature horse and the mascot for Tennessee Equine Hospital.

The two mascots met to discuss the upcoming Alzheimer's Walk, which will be hosted by Alzheimer’s Tennessee on April 18. Bonnie and Stevie will be available for petting and photos during the event, and Stevie will be leading the walk to Make Alzheimer's A Memory.

D.D. Farms in Murfreesboro is the home of Bonnie & Friends. You can hire Bonnie and/or her pals to attend events and birthday parties in the Middle Tennessee area. Bonnie can also be spotted at many of our Senior Living Facilities, including regular appearances at Richland Place. You can learn more about Bonnie at www.ddminifarm.com.

Employee Spotlight: Dominique McPike

Dominique is originally from Milwaukee, Wisconsin and has been living here for nine years. She’s married with two children, aged 4 and 2.

She joined Rita’s Care at Home to help the elderly and disabled - her goal is to make her clients’ lives “just a little easier that day.”

When she’s not working, Dominique enjoys traveling, walking, watching movies, and going to church. Her family is very active in church and it brings her joy to sing to others.

“Thank you for electing me as employee of the month,” said Dominique. “I will put in every effort to make sure our clients are well cared for.”

Dominique has a really positive attitude and handles challenges with a smile. Rita’s is so glad and proud she’s with us!
